Philadelphia, PA – July 28, 2010 – Charnelle Hicks, AICP, PP, President of CHPlanning, Ltd., a Philadelphia-based land use, environmental and transportation planning firm, has been invited to participate in the 2010 Greater Philadelphia Leadership Exchange, which culminates in a three-day learning visit to the San Francisco Bay Area in September. She will join more than 100 prominent business, nonprofit, government, and community leaders from the Philadelphia region.

The event, sponsored by the Economy League of Greater Philadelphia, brings together an impressive and diverse group of individuals representing business, nonprofits, higher education, health care, state and local government, labor, and foundations. This year's Leadership Exchange is a unique opportunity for participants to build new connections with regional leaders, deepen knowledge of Greater Philadelphia's systems, and learn from innovative practices employed in the San Francisco Bay area.

The Economy League of Greater Philadelphia is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to research and analysis of the region's resources and challenges with the goal of promoting sound public policy and increasing the region's prosperity.

CHPlanning, Ltd. is headquartered in Center City Philadelphia with offices in Delaware County, PA; Pittsburgh; and New Orleans. It is a premier provider of planning services which participates in a wide variety of initiatives enhancing communities, environments and business corridors. The 10 year-old firm has been recognized by the Philadelphia 100 as one of the fastest-growing privately held firms in the Philadelphia region and is a certified minority- and woman-owned business.
